ZEDAL - your modern and future-proof tool

Cross-border waste shipments are playing an increasingly important role in a Europe that is growing together, but also worldwide.

ZEDAL provides the necessary forms and workflows in accordance with all relevant legal standards as a web application. The forms can be conveniently filled out, saved and archived on screen with master data support and plausibility checks.

The forms and other documents can be used in the further process as a paper printout, by fax, by e-mail and electronically, with or without a qualified digital signature. The aforementioned communication channels can be used in a mix, whereby each sending and receiving process is logged with the dispatch entry and delivery status.

For the electronic form, ZEDAL currently uses eTFS, the de facto standard in Europe. Once the new Waste Shipment Regulation comes into force on May 20, 2024, the EU Commission will define new data formats and communication protocols. ZEDAL guarantees that these will be supported.
